A Kiss on the Sig.

There is to be band much refreshment in a well-proportloned kiss. This only a frank few have the conrage to acknowledge it openly. And it is a curions fact as yet unexplained by the philosophers, that the slyer the klss is A kiss that is paid as a forfelt before a to say embarrassing. The girl laughs which spoils the rotoance, and the felthem thinks much of it, and they both are apt pretty soon to forget all about it. But let the same fellow kiss the same girl when mebody is locking-or what amounts to the same tldig, when both think inbody is booking-and the belond a door or in a conservatory, is like an electric shock and is as aweet as whipped cream. The taste of it sort of propriety-or impropriety, as the case may be - of trying it again. And the spolling the romance a bit, and the girl
